Go, Jesus, Go, Jesus, Go!

Travel a circuit, You love man so!

Thru the grain fields to a town,

Up to the mountains, and then down!

Visit a village, walk by the sea,

Eat in a house with people like me;

All around the countryside,

You're serving people far and wide!

(Go, go, go, go, go, go!)

And they were baptized by John
In the river Jordan
As they confessed their sins.

Wearing camel skins, at the Jordan preaching:
Now repent, receive the One who's to come,
He is Jesus, the serving One.

When He rose from the water,
the heavens opened wide.
As down came a dove, God spoke from above:
This is Jesus, My Son beloved.

They were mending nets when He called unto them;
Immediately their hearts were won,
They followed Jesus, the lovely One.

The kingdom is near; the gospel now has come."
And it is Jesus, the ruling One.

Jesus is here! He's back again!

We'd better take our paralyzed friend.

There's such a crowd; there's no way in.

We've got to get our friend to Him.

They removed the roof and they lowered Him in.

Rise, take up your mat, and go to your —

Child, your sins are all forgiven!

Rise take up your mat, and go to your house."

Go Jesus! Go! - The Serving Savior in the GOspel of Mark

Mark 2:10-12

SONG 11

1) A house, overcrowded
With people who came to see the Lord;
A man who wanted to walk again
Came through the roof to see the Lord;
Then Jesus forgave by authority,
Authority of His Father.
He said rise up and walk, and then
The man got up and walked and praised the Lord.

(Chorus)

The slave has no authority
If he doesn't do the will of his master.
The slave has his authority
Because he does the will of his master.

2) In the gospel of Mark we can see
Our serving Lord visibly.
He served His Father diligently
And didn't take glory for Himself.
The slave has authority
Only because the master speaks.
Our Savior only did His works
Because of the will of his Father.

Only to grasp His garments, I pushed through.
Power flowed as I reached and touched the fringe;

And will return it back to them.'
People threw their garments on the colt for Him to sit on,
And spread them on the road where He would go.

Branches full of tender leaves,
The people layered them upon the road,

Coming in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest to our King.

Behold, your King comes on a colt."
Disciples walked before Him and behind
And for His works of power loudly praised.
Peace in heaven, glory in the highest!
The Pharisees asked Jesus to hush them.
Jesus answered, "If they're silent, stones themselves will cry out!"
And into Jerusalem He went.

Shall be saved; be saved, and not condemned!
Preach and proclaim unto all creation,
Going ev'rywhere.

After speaking to them,
Jesus was taken up to heav'n;

Now, continuously the gospel proceeds to the Uttermost part of the earth!
